

Please leave the "no call" alone!! I am so pleased not to be bothered with annoying calls. I used to get calls all the time, sometimes 4-6 a day. I hate to be rude, but as soon as I knew it wasn't a personal call or someone I knew, I'd hang up. There's no way I'd sign up for something or buy something over the phone. If I want to buy something I am the one who does the calling or goes out and buys it. I've been on the "no call" list since it first came out. I got just a couple of calls after that and told them I was on the list. Since January, I'd say I haven't received more than 4 calls and this is great. So peaceful!! Since I don't have Caller ID, I now know if the phone rings, it's someone I know!!!
Please DON'T change it.
Thanks!
